LAVINIA CAUSED MUCH EXCITEMENT

ABOUT THE HARBOR WHILE WHILE GETTING AWAY FOR LAYSAN ISLAND.

Captain Weisbarth caused considerable excitement in the harbor this morning while under way for Laysan with his schooner the Lavinia. In fact many thought that perhaps the old Viking had broken loose into a pirate.

The captain got the vessel under way, shortly after 11 o'clock and sailed mauka across the harbor from the Irmgard wharf. He ran about of the yacht Helene, and one of Allen and Robinson's schooners, and then veering further down the harbor, ran into the Alameda. Somebody on the steamer called to him to look out. Weisbarth went below and returned on deck with a shotgun which he handled as if he proposed to fill the man on the Alameda full of shot. The latter desisted however from further remark and then the Lavinia started down the channel. She had to get out of the way of the tug Fearless coming past with the bark R. P. Rithet in tow but finally the old Viking cleared the last buoy and got well on his way to Laysan where he will load a cargo of guano into the Lavinia.

MUCH SUSPICION ATTACHED TO FIRE

HIGH SHERIFF INVESTIGATED A SUSPICIOUS BLAZE TODAY—MAY HAVE BEEN SET ON FIRE.

High Sheriff Henry was busy this morning doing some "plain clothes" work. The Sheriff having been retired from politics started into the management of the police department with all the enthusiasm of a youth out of school. A suspected incendiary fire on the mauka side of King street near the railway depot was the cause of the High Sheriff's exploits. Fire was discovered about 2:30 o'clock this morning under the floor of a drug store kept by Quong Sing Tong. The fire department could not for a time, locate the fire but after chopping holes into the floor, discovered the fire to be in a mass of kindling wood, some sacks filled with moss, and some papers, the odor of kerosene being strongly present about the burning rubbish. The blaze was extinguished and the building which was owned by the Oahu Lumber and Building Company was not damaged over $10.

Although there was an insurance of $1,000 on the drug store stock, suspicion was not directed toward Quong but the police decided to call upon another Chinese to explain some rather peculiar coincidences in regard to the fire. It was found that about the only way by which the kindling and other rubbish could have been put under the drug store, was a person having crawled underneath the floor. The only entrance was through a hole in the floor of a tin shop two stores away, from the drug store. Paper, moss and wood similar to that found in the fire, were found in this tin store, so the High Sheriff decided to call upon the owner of the tin store to make a statement regarding the matter. There was insurance of $1,600 on the tin store.

BREVET GOVERNORS OF HAWAII

HOW THEY GOT THEIR TITLES AND WHAT THE UNREGNERATE EXPECT THEM TO DO.

"Good morning, Governor Robertson" "Good morning, Governor Woods." It was thus that Republican National Committeeman A. G. M. Robertson and Democratic National Committeeman Palmer P. Woods greeted one another with dignity this morning and passed along their separate ways.

"Well" gasped a bystander who heard the salutations "if things are going on like this we will have more Governors in Hawaii than they have Colonels in Kentucky. By the way, I heard of one man when I was in Louisville last who got his colonelcy strangely. He inherited it with his wife's estate. His wife had been married to a Kentucky colonel and had then been divorced from him. She married the second time and so her new husband received his commission, so to speak, from his predecessor in the lady's affections. That would seem to me to be a precedent and if that Colonelcy holds good, as I am assured it does, certainly the honor of having even been mentioned for the governorship of Hawaii will entitle the mentionee to be called "Governor" for the rest of his life. It's an interesting point," concluded the curb-stone philosopher "and I should like to see a test case put before the Supreme Court."

If the wayside dreamer's contention is correct, Hawaii will certainly be able to produce a grand crop of Governors. There will be governors of all ages, sizes, colors, weights and religious leanings. Some will combine two titles in one, Admiral Beckley for instance. He is prominently mentioned for the place so he will have to be called "Governor-Admiral" or else "Admiral-Governor." The Russians have, or rather they had, a warship named the General-Admiral. Something-or-other and why, it might be asked, should not Hawaii have an Admiral-Governor?

Up in the Pacific Club on Saturday night it was figured out that there are now twenty-six governors in Honolulu alone and the other islands have yet to report in full. There are Governor-Senator Dowsett, Governor Frank Thompson, Governor Kepoikai, Governor Baldwin, Governor McCants Stewart, Governor Willie Harris, Governor Cooper, Governor Kruger, Governor A. M. Brown, Governor Jimmy Dougherty, Governor Spreckels, Governor Jack Atkinson, of course, Governor-Colonel McCarthy, Governor-Senator Faxon Bishop, and—well the best way will be to run through the city directory for the others.

Meanwhile the unregenerate are hoping against hope that all of the newly fledged governors will emulate the distinguished example set by the eminent gentleman who occupied the gubernatorial chair of No'th Cah-linah at the time that he met his brother from South Cah-linah.
